“ Aunt Katie was the last living sibling of nine girls and one boy. What an amazing family. Each one worked very hard caring for their families, others and each other. Aunt Katie, as the rest of the girls, could cook and bake like no others. I would tell Aunt Katie she made the best pot roast and lima beans in the world. They each had their own speciality. The greatest of their talents was love. All ten were loving and caring individuals. Aunt Katie will be sadly missed on earth but now she is in heaven with her brother and sisters.
