“ Lots of good memories from the last 17 years. We were always rewarded with a “Thank you” and a “Looks nice” which were not taken lightly. She was very proud of her place and we shared her pride in the way it was kept. A lot of laughs and good times with Roy, Linda, Herb and Debbie.

Everyone who visited at Christmas remembers her “Eggnog”. Two cups of that and all of a sudden it was Easter.

Rest In Peace, Mrs. Hudnall.
